He has secured the services of "Charley" (known to be the best cook in Salem and one of the best in the whole country) and other competent persons to manage the culinary department and is resolved to set as good a table as can be found anywhere—not in clap trap and flummery and fine furniture, but in an abundant supply of the very best the market affords

WASHINGTON Dec 13 —In the Senate to-day a joint resolution to allow steamboats to carry friction matches without storing in fire proof safes was passed Howe of Wisconsin offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Public Lands to report on the expediency of printing the report of the Commissioner of the Land Office for the year ending June 1866 in different foreign languages for distribution at the Paris exhibition

The old street suffrage bill was taken up the question being on Dixon's amendment, to attach the qualifications of reading and writing

Mr Cowan of Penn opposed the amendment

Mr Foster of Conn., spoke in favor of it

Mr Sumner of Mass said he should vote against Dixon s amendment The example made by Congress now was to be followed by the people of the disorganized States As Congress votes so will they vote hereafter If an educational standard is set up it will be followed throughout the South. The votes of black loyalists are needed now in the District of Columbia Congress is beginning the great work of reconstruction " The previous question was then taken on Dixon s amendment, and the vote resulted ayes 11 nays, 34 Absent, 7

Mr. Wilson of Mass., offered an amendment in two sections First, punishing those who offered any bribe at elections, and Second, punishing those who pocketed it The amendment was adopted Various verbal amendments were then offered and adopted, after which the bill passed. Ayes, 32, nays, 13

On motion of Mr Fessenden, of Me, the deficiency bill passed by the House was taken up and ordered printed and referred to finance committee Adjourned.

In the Senate a bill was introduced for the relief of W L. Adams Collector of Astoria, Oregon, on account of funds stolen in San Francisco last February Also a bill providing that notice of the ratification of the constitutional amendment be sent to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives instead of the Secretary of State.

Wade of Ohio, gave notice that he would call up the Nebraska bill to-morrow

In the House Bidwell of California offered a resolution instructing the Postoffice Committee to inquire into the expediency of re-establishing the Southern Overland Mail route from San Francisco, via Los Angeles to Memphis, Tennessee Adopted

Stevens, of Pennsylvania, introduced a bill to re-establish civil government in North Carolina to enable it to resume its former relations as one of the Constitutional States of the American Union He stated that he did so at the request of several gentlemen from North Carolina Referred to Committee on Territories

The House passed the concurrent resolution to take a recess from the 20th of December to the 30th of January

Resolutions were passed calling on the President for all documents, &c. in relation to the New Orleans riots and the reprieve of Crawford Keys and others convicted of the murder of three U S soldiers in South Carolina

The House then went into Committee of the whole on the Deficiency bill Stevens will renew his proposition for an increase of currency at an early day

The report that the nomination of Gen Dix as Minister to France has been confirmed, is erroneous

The deficiency bill being under consideration in the House Mr Washburn of Illinois, moved to strike out a paragraph appropriating $17,680 for deficiency for work done or being done by corporations of Washington City in front of and across Government property He said he was not disposed to vote money to this city The paragraph was struck out by a vote of 56 to 41

Mr Scofield of Pennsylvania moved to strike out a paragraph appropriating $25 000 for the State department and requested information about it He had heard it said it was to induce Surratt to come to this country and receive his pardon as there was no pardoning agency established in Europe [Laughter]

Mr Stevens of Pennsylvania, said that he had himself been disposed to recommend that item to the appropriation committee He had before requested Seward who is a young man [Laughter] to call upon him and give him the necessary instruction, and Seward had done so He would say to the gentleman that they had not talked about anything except business, and Seward had assured him that the appropriation was necessary and proper It comprised various matters. The Government had large suits pending in Europe, principally in England and France, to recover property which had belonged to the Confederate Government and these suits were very expensive The Aggregate amount involved was over $20 000 000 and a very large proportion of that would be recovered. The expenses of tracing Surratt all over Europe were large and the State Department would have to pay the additional expenses of the vessel that was conveying Surratt to that country Then the State Department had to bear the expense of the reception of Queen Emma in this country and of her return to Honolulu It also had to pay the expenses of the recent expedition to Mexico

Schofield of Pennsylvania expressed himself satisfied with the explanation He did not know but that some part of the appropriation might have been intended to pay the expenses of the President s party while swinging round the circle

Stevens, of Pennsylvania, assured him that no part of the appropriation would be applied to that purpose although he understood there were some unpaid bills in connection with that trip

Schofield, of Pennsylvania, then withdrew his motion and the committee rose

WASHINGTON Dec 13—The House passed the Deficiency bill One of its items is $40 000 for facilitating telegraphic communication between the Atlantic and Pacific

Stevens bill to establish civil government in North Carolina—after a long preamble—provides for holding a convention of two hundred delegates at Raleigh on the 20th of May 1867 to frame a constitution to be submitted to Congress for approval or rejection and that all citizens who can read or write or own $200 worth of property may vote for delegation the United States Marshal to appoint judges of the election and the delegates to take an oath that since the 4th of March 1865 they would willingly have complied with the requirements of the President's proclamation of the 8th of December 1863 had a safe opportunity been afforded

A STONE MUMMY —A stone figure has been turned up in a quarry at Wishaw, and, it is understood, is likely to be sent to the British Museum The Hamilton Advertiser has the following

On the bank of the freestone quarry, which is being worked at the lower end of the town of Wishaw, is to be seen a sculptured like form, which at first glance is not unlike one of the winged bulls which have been dug out of the sandheaps which imbedded the ruins of ancient Nineveh The operations of the quarries have recently disinterred it from its rocky tomb in the bottom of the quarry, and by great care in hewing out the rock around it, they have been enabled to secure it in almost an entire state. The workmen have turned up many similar forms of late of smaller size but when this was first met it created quite a sensation among them, for, from the position in which it was found lying, the parts first uncovered bore a remarkable resemblance to the human form Its head and body together measure about eight feet long, and its shape is somewhat different from any member of the saurian tribe that has hitherto been discovered in the same section of rocks It seems to belong to a higher order of life, and bears a strong resemblance to members of the seal or walrus tribe, that tenant the seas and lounge on the shores, of the present day It appears to be lying on its side, on a line parallel to what must have been the tidal wave Its forefins or paddles are folded into its belly The rock in which it was found overlies the main coal, and is of that description designated by quarriers and builders as lower rocks—an amorphous freestone having neither beds or vertical cracks, presenting the appearance of having been formed in convulsive waters and under different conditions from the ordinary bedded rocks A few yards from the place where these fossil mummies have been extracted algæ or seaweed are seen in great abundance

GRATIFYING ANNOUNCEMENT—SHORT DRESSES TO BE WORN BY LADIES —The edict has gone forth from the French capital—the seat of the empire of fashion—that the ladies shall wear short dresses. The new style has already reached New York and is being exhibited there, and it is said to delight the ladies very much It is not understood that the Bloomer costume is to be adopted by any means But the sweeping trails that drag the sidewalks and all public places—those extremities upon which gentlemen are constantly treading and which often cover a great deal that is filthy and unsightly—these are to be abandoned The substitute is a dress that is short enough to clear the floor and the pavement, and long enough to conceal from view all that is desirable to conceal If a lady wears clean hose it will be known under the new style, and she will have the credit of tidiness in that particular, and she will not sop the water and filth of the streets with her skirts and transfer it to her hose Those who have ridiculed tilting hoops and denounced the ladies who sport them will be pleased with the new style of dress, for worn with a proper skirt of moderate proportions, it will in no sense be offensive to decency and good taste It is true that it will afford to those who are so rude as to look at a lady's heels, in preference to her head, a steady, uniform, uninterrupted view of just so much as she intends to exhibit, and no more There will be no swaying and bounding and dancing of expanded dry goods —no startling disclosures that pass over the vision like meteoric flashes—things seen but a moment and then seen no more till the balloon comes in contact with another of its kind, hits a door casing, or is thrown out of perpendicular by some cause Nothing more of this kind under the new style of short dresses and contracted skirts All will be witching and what is more, a few yards of silk muslin, dimity, etc , will be saved for the benefit of whom it may concern —New York Herald

DENVER, BLACK HAWK AND SALT LAKE —The characteristics of Denver, Black Hawk and Salt Lake are thus stated by their representative papers

From the corner of Blake and F streets in this city a stone could be easily thrown into five billiard halls, containing altogether twenty five of the best modern tables, and costing not less than $10,000 to bring them here from the States and place in position —Denver News

From the corner of Clear Creek and Chase streets in this city a stone could easily be thrown into five quartz mills, containing fifty stamps and two desulphurizers, and costing not less than $100,000 to bring them from the States and place in position —Black Hawk Journal

From the corner of Main and Temple streets in this city a stone could be easily thrown into five forty old fellows' harems, containing altogether 120 wives and 200 children, and costing not less than $9 000,000 of "tithing" (from their poor, priest-ridden people) to fatten 'em every year and sustain 'em in "position" —Salt Lake Vedette

THE HOME OF GEORGE ELIOT —Miss Louisa Alcott, in a letter to the New York Independent, describes a visit to the home of George Eliot, whom by the way, she did not see and thus alludes to the domestic relations of this popular authoress

As we drove home I asserted my Yankee privilege of asking questions and as the facts I then learned are no secret I repeat them here Lewes having given and received bail an unfaithful wife, cannot, according to English law, obtain a divorce, although the wife has twice deserted him Miss Evans is considered his wife, and called Mrs Lewes by their friends, in spite of gossip and scandal Owing to her peculiar position Mrs Lewes seldom goes into general society or sees strangers, though every one is anxious to meet her, and many of her warmest friends are among the wise and good. All whom I saw loved, respected and defended her some upon the plea that if genius, like charity, covers a multitude of sins in men, why not in woman?

HOW NEW YORK WAS LOST TO THE DEMOCRACY —Our distinguished citizen—the ex-pugilist and faro banker John Morrissey—was elected to Congress by an overwhelming majority, as I predicted in my last he would be, and now the Democracy in looking about for an excuse for their Waterloo defeat in the State, are guilty of the insufferable meanness of laying it all on him Hoffman openly charges that but for the load of odium which the nomination of Morrissey by Old Tammany transferred to his shoulders he would now be Governor elect of the Empire State This, I say, is insufferably mean, for I happen to know that if it had not been for Morrissey's money freely used at the Albany Convention, Hoffman would never have got the nomination from that body Morrissey made his boast in the lobbies of the Convention that he would spend $30,000 to secure the nomination of Hoffman, and it is a well known fact that on the assembling of the Convention there was a clear majority for Gen Dix, but by a coup d'etat of the Chairman an adjournment was carried before a ballot was taken, and the next morning it was found that Morrissey's $30 000 had done its work and Hoffman had a majority of the delegates And now for Hoffman to turn round and accuse Morrissey of having beaten him with his odious reputation, is the height of ingratitude And then, too, the idea of Morrissey's bringing any "odium" to the Democratic party of this city—a party that has elected to Congress such men as Mike Walsh, Ben and Fernando Wood, and others of that ilk, and that has had the unanimous vote of the Five Points for the last twenty years! "Odium" indeed! Why, John Morrissey has only been convicted of burglary once, and there are only five indictments against him for assault and battery on the records of the Albany Courts and only three on the records of the Courts of this city, and yet every thief, burglar and highwayman of the Metropolis has been a staunch supporter of the Democratic party of this city from time immemorial. The fact is (and this is the real cause of their defeat) the whole Democratic party is "odious," not to say odoriferous, and the subject, like the party, is too musty for further comment —Bulletin's New York letter

REMAINS FOUND —The Marysville (Cal) Appeal of Dec. 5th has the following .

E T Starr, while out hunting yesterday, a short distance east of his brother's residence, discovered considerable portions of human remains, which upon investigation, were ascertained to be fragments of the body of Hank P. Croft, a former well known teamster of this city, who very mysteriously disappeared from his residence about the 1st of August last. The flesh was almost completely eaten from the bones, which were scattered about, and the remains were identified principally through the peculiarity of the clothing worn and a notable jack knife always carried by deceased Croft was at times subject to spells of mental derangement, to which cause may be attributed his death, His remains were taken in charge by Coroner Hamilton.

SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 15, 1866.

The Last Expedient.

We have heretofore said that the Democratic party, having failed under the leadership of Johnson, had now no further use for him, and was already abandoning him. Also, we have spoken of the progress which that party is making toward the open advocacy of negro suffrage. The following is a part of a late article from the Chicago Times on these subjects. The Times declares that its party never before encountered events so seriously effecting its vitality as now, and proposes two remedies. First, to abandon President Johnson, and next to pronounce for negro suffrage. It goes on to say:

> "In the first place, must we not cut loose from the Administration of Andrew Johnson, and leave the hybrid concern to float on the sea of public contempt, into which it some time since entered and from which no power can rescue it? Is not the late defeat attributable more to this Administration than to all other causes combined? What is there in its composition to command popular confidence? Who belonging to it is entitled, by reason of his antecedents or of his statesmanship, to the confidence or the respect of the Democratic party? Certainly it is not Andrew Johnson, nor Wm. H. Seward, nor Edwin M. Stanton. Thus this Administration had a right policy, but the policy having failed, and having failed, too, through the feebleness and folly and offenses of the Administration, why should not the Democratic party abandon the dead body, longer adhesion to which is death also to itself? What next can the Democratic party succeed to until the negro question shall be gotten out of the way? Is not negro suffrage inevitable, and is it not the quickest way to get the negro question out of the way to at once concede the suffrage, making issue only on the degree to which it shall be conceded? We know that many Democrats have not reached this advanced view of the case, and that such still feel greatly inclined to revolt at the proposition of negro suffrage in any degree; but let us tell them that it is always wise to accept the inevitable when the inevitable comes. Negro suffrage is inevitable, and whether it shall be qualified or universal depends upon the promptness or otherwise with which the Democratic party shall move with reference to it. The South will speedily yield qualified negro suffrage upon the motion of the Democratic party, because, and for no other reason, she will soon see, if she does not already, that if she do not yield it she will ultimately be compelled to accept universal suffrage. Qualified negro suffrage conceded by the South, and by this we mean impartial suffrage, or suffrage dependent upon the intelligence of the man independent of color, as is now the rule in Massachusetts, and the negro question will have been disposed of and the occupation of the Northern Republican radical party be gone forever. If the South be wise it will not wait on this suffrage question even for the motion of the Democratic party. If it be wise it will lose no time, in which it will at the same time save itself from humiliation, preserve its own self-respect and rid the country of the most vexatious question that ever distracted any country, kill the worst political party that ever existed on the globe and put the Union in the way of speedy restoration. The machinery consists, of course, in Conventions to revise the State Constitutions."

The Times is undoubtedly right in anticipating some opposition to this scheme. The politicians might easily forget their hostility to the idea of negro suffrage, and urge its adoption; but those Democrats (and they are legion) whose only gratifying thought is that the negro, disfranchised as he is at present, is beneath them, and who feel that the extension of suffrage would remove the principal distinction which now exists between the negro and themselves, will be loth to follow where the politicians would lead. This class of persons will imagine that their honor and dignity are involved in the matter, and will be reluctant to barter away both for the poor consolation of the name of a party victory. All their lives their political conduct has been guided by the single and simple idea that their superiority over the negro must be maintained, and that it will require vigilance and activity to maintain it. They will not forget these inveterate prejudices at the dictation of party leaders. Still, there can be no doubt that a large portion of the Democracy—perhaps much the larger portion,—could be brought round at once in favor of negro suffrage. It would not be strange if the party should very soon try this expedient. Stranger things have happened. The Times is right in saying that no other course is left for its party. It might have added that even the adoption of this last expedient would not lead it to victory.

One of the Reconstructed.—James P. Hambleton, of Atlanta, announces himself as a candidate for Congress in the 7th District of Georgia to fill a "vacancy," in a letter in which he declares that the South in her effort to establish a Southern Confederacy was guilty of no crime, and, although failing, was simply in the exercise of an inalienable right, the underlying principle and cause of which was the noblest, the grandest, the most righteous and glorious for which any people ever battled! As for himself he says: "I can only subscribe to an oath to faithfully support the Constitution." This chivalrous individual is giving himself a great deal of unnecessary trouble. He will never sit in the Congress of the United States.

A few days ago a child in Nevada county, California, came to its death in a singular manner. It dipped its fingers into a can of concentrated lye, which caused a burning sensation. To soothe the pain it put its fingers into its mouth, and the result was it died in ten hours.

The Richmond Examiner speaking of the Northern elections says: "We of the South bow to the result." This is encouraging. It is gratifying to know that secession is not to follow political defeats hereafter, as it did in 1860.

Pennsylvania papers say that Gov. Curtin's chances for the Senatorship of that State are first; Simon Cameron's are next, and then follow in their order Galusha A. Grow, Thaddeus Stevens and J. W. Forney.

The Sacramento Union says: "The President's message is incomparable in one respect: it is the coolest defiance of a whole people by a professed republican, on record."

Bonnets, the shape of stars, with jet black stars in the center, are the latest London style.

Head-Quarters Department of Columbia,
Fort Vancouver, W. T., Dec. 12, 1866.
General Orders,
No. 14.

I. Bvt. Col. E. B. Babbitt, Deputy Quartermaster General, having reported at these Head-Quarters in compliance with paragraph II, G. O., No. 28, current series, Head-Quarters Mil. Div. Pacific, will relieve Bvt. Lt. Col. Henry C. Hodges, Capt. A. Q. M. U. S. A., in the duties of Chief Quartermaster, Department of Columbia.

II. Until further orders, Bvt. Lieut. Col. Hodges, A. Q. M. U. S. A. will perform the duties of Depot and Post Quartermaster at Fort Vancouver, W. T. By order of Major General F. Steele.

SAM. A. FOSTER,
Bvt. Maj., Chief C. S.,
Acting Asst. Adj't. Gen.

It is rumored that Capt. Eckerson, A. Q. M. at Boise, will for the benefit of his health, be ordered to relieve Capt. James Gillis, A. Q. M. at Fort Stevens, and that the latter officer will relieve Captain Eckerson at Fort Boise.

Bvt. Maj. Gen. Rufus Ingalls, has been appointed Assistant Q. M. General with the rank of Colonel.

Lt. Col. Marshal, Fourteenth Inf'y, is on his way down to report at headquarters, having been relieved by Lt. Col. Crooke in the command of Boise District. He will probably be assigned to duty at Camp Winthrop or Warner's Lake.

Capt. Kelly with his company of Eighth U. S. Cavalry is on his way back to Fort Vancouver, the season being too far advanced for him to proceed to Fort Klamath. His company will be stationed at this post.

General Steele has just issued an order directing officers under his command to dispense with the service of civilians as much as possible and when it becomes necessary to employ such, to give the preference to honorably discharged soldiers and especially those who have been partially disabled.

A telegraphic dispatch from Washington City, dated December 12, states that General Robt. Allen has been assigned to the command of the military division of the Pacific. This is undoubtedly a mistake. Gen. Allen is an officer in the Quartermaster department and could not be assigned to such duty, the law giving the President power to assign officers to duty irrespective of seniority and the arm of the service to which they belong having been repealed.

Gen. Steele and Sickles are now the only Major Generals of Volunteers retained in the service.

DATES TO DECEMBER 14.

Congressional.

New York, Dec. 14.—Secretary McCulloch's new tariff bill is printed with the rates of the House bill passed last July and the proposed new rates in parallel columns. At a glance it is seen that the new measure for the most part re-enacts the existing tariff act, and the respect in which it differs is that it favors importers more than home products.

The Ways and Means Committee appear to be about equally divided on the subject of the contraction of the currency, and the probability is that the Committee will adhere to the present rate of monthly contraction. Mr. McCulloch's plan for a more rapid contraction will hardly be reported in favor of, as the temper of the House is such that were the matter to come up in that shape a strong attempt will be made to withhold the power to withdraw even four millions a month. The opposition of the House to the contraction is quite marked.

The concurrent resolution for recess from December 20th to January 3d, which passed the House, 103 to 31, will meet with serious opposition in the Senate.

Four petitions have been presented to Congress for the impeachment of the President, all from the West, bearing in the aggregate about 250 names.

Mr. Foster, of Connecticut, voted against the district suffrage bill because, he said, the educational basis has been rejected.

The U. S. Claims in England.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The settlement made by Consul Morse, in London, with Frazier, Trenholm & Co., the disavowal of which, by the United States, was mentioned in a recent dispatch, purported to be the settlement of all claims of the United States against that firm, involving many thousands of pounds sterling. It appears that proceedings in chancery were being vigorously prosecuted by the Consul in Liverpool, Mr. Dudley had succeeded in forcing Frazier, Trenholm & Co. into a position where they were compelled to make a full disclosure on an oath of all dealings of the firm with the Confederate Government, including all transactions with the rebel Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Trenholm, together with the full exhibition of all their books and papers. To avoid all disagreeable discourses, Frazier, Trenholm & Company, sought and effected a settlement which was clandestinely made through Mr. Consul Morse and one Montgomery Gibbs, reputed to be an agent of the Treasury Department, whose agreement provides for dismissing all claims in England and the United States, and giving up all claims by the United States, and merely requires that Frazier, Trenholm & Co. shall state now under oath, what Confederate property they have had in their possession, that they shall dispose of the same, and after paying themselves $150,000, which, without any statement of account, is agreed upon as the indebtedness of the Confederate Government to them, they shall pay the remaining balance to the United States. This settlement was made by Mr. Consul Morse under the color of general authority from the Treasury Department for the Confederate property in England, but it has been promptly rejected by the United States Government on the ground that it was relinquishing everything to Frazier, Trenholm & Co., and was in fact utterly without authority on the part of the Consul at London, whose instructions did not apply to these proceedings which were under the sole management of the Consul at Liverpool. He made the pretended settlement behind the back of Mr. Consul Dudley and without the knowledge of Minister Adams, without whose sanction no action was valid. The disavowal of the agreement having gone to England by telegraph, due legal proceedings will be renewed and pressed with vigor until every dollar of Confederate property in the hands of the chief financial agents of the rebellion shall be secured.

The South American War.

New York, Dec. 14.—The Herald's Rio Janeiro correspondent of Nov. 8th says the French Envoy, Count De Beaumont, had had an interview with the leaders of the hostile armies in Paraguay.

A storm visited Buenos Ayres on the 28th and 29th of October, and considerable property was destroyed. Thirteen soldiers were drowned. The Allies on Rio Platte were compelled to suspend hostilities, owing to the want of re-enforcements and the severe floods that were prevailing. Washburn, the Minister to Paraguay, left Buenos Ayres on the 28th of October for the city of Assumption.

Caleb of Lyonsdale Robbed.

New York, Dec. 12.—Hon. Caleb Lyon, formerly Governor of Idaho, was robbed of $40,000 on Wednesday, in a train from New York. He was on his way to Washington. The money stolen belonged to the Government, which Mr. Lyon was conveying to Washington, where he was going to settle his accounts with the Indian Bureau, the Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Idaho having been succeeded by Governor Ballard.

The steam tug Fairfield, of the Camden Transportation Company sunk last evening by colliding with the Fulton. Her crew had a narrow escape. Total loss $16,000. No insurance. According to the statements of the Pilots of the respective boats, each one was to blame.

The recent seizures of a large number of distilleries has had the effect of closing nearly every establishment in this city.

Wm. A. Sanborn, of Sterling, Illinois, has sued Silas C. Herring & Co., to recover the sum of $2,645, stolen by burglars from a safe warranted by the defendant to be burglar proof.

Increasing Demand for Grain.

Chicago, Dec. 14.—New York papers say that Great Britain is increasing her demands for grain. The amount of a quarter of a million of bushels was shipped during the past two days. The whole stock of all kinds of grain in the New York market will not probably exceed twelve million of bushels.

Irish Affairs.

New York, Dec. 13.—The steamer Cuba's Mail brings news of great consternation in Ireland on account of the Fenian troubles, and a tremendous panic has occurred in Cork. A correspondent from that city writes that the feeling of uneasiness is considerably increased by the measures resorted to by the country tradespeople and comfortable farmers to get in their possession all the money they can scrape together, which they are turning into gold and securities. Shopkeepers decline receiving their stock of goods, and excuse the payment of outstanding accounts while they draw from banks the balances in their favor. The farmers are also drawing their money from the banks and requiring gold payments from their producers. There are none more unhappy than the Catholic clergy. They say the people now avoid their instructions. Although they usually attend mass they withdraw from their other duties, and the non-observance of the requirements of the church is not confined to the male population.

New York, Dec. 14.—Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Fox, arrived in the steamer California last evening. He left immediately for Washington. His arrival was so quiet that it was not generally known until after he was gone.

The ship Ocean Eagle from Baltimore for San Francisco was compelled to put into Rio on the 31st of October in distress. She had three feet of water in her hold. She encountered very heavy weather in latitude 42.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

San Francisco, Dec. 14.—Jacob G. Chappell, for many years a member of the detective corps of police, was removed by the Police Commissioner yesterday.

The trial of B. C. Brooks, for fraudulently using the U. S. Inspector's mark, was concluded in the U. S. District Court last evening, the Jury bringing in a verdict of guilty, after three hours deliberation.

The sailors of the ship Reinard who were charged by the captain with mutiny were indicted by the U. S. Grand Jury yesterday.

Thomas W. Hinchman has been appointed Special Internal Revenue Agent for California, vice J. Walker removed.

Judge Pratt this morning rendered judgment for plaintiff for $6,990, with interest, in suit of Barnard Tried vs. Clement, and for plaintiff in the suit of Wm. Troop vs. the Cherokee Gold and Silver Mining Company. The latter suit was brought to compel the Company to transfer 1,090 shares of stock to the credit of plaintiff, the same having been transferred to him by other parties, in whose names it stands on the Company's books.

In case of H. C. Morse vs. steamship American, to recover $7,000 damages, alleged to have been sustained by the wrecking of the steamer Golden Rule on the Roncader Reefs, in May, 1865, Judge Dwinelle, on motion of counsel, set aside the former order overruling the demurrer, and sustained demurrers to the complaint on the principal ground that the American can't be held responsible for any acts performed on the Golden Rule. The Jury were then discharged and the case continued.

United States Grand Jury have presented true bills of indictment against S. W. Griffith, A. Kennedy, Wm. S. Harlow, B. D. Brown, John Fitch, W. C. Fitch, Danl. O'Connor, Thomas Eddy, S. F. Seabury, J. H. Hikox, J. D. Potter, John S. Ward, John A. Robinson, D. H. Lowry, C. F. Mine and E. Dunham, for neglecting and refusing to make returns and reports to Assessor Bigler. The defendants are Assistant Assessors, and their offense consists in continuing to make their official returns to Avery instead of Bigler. One of Marshal Rand's deputies has gone up country to arrest defendants.

Wheat—The market is quiet, with small sales at $1 75 @1 90, as extremes.

Barley—Good feed 95@97½c.

Oats—Coast $1 40.

There is no change to report in gold or sterling.

Legal tenders remain as yesterday morning.

Sailed—Dec. 13th, ship Western Continent, New Bedford; Dec. 14th, whaling bark Massachusetts, cruise.

Officers.—The Legislative Council of Washington Territory have elected the following officers, to-wit: D. F. Dennison, of Jefferson, President; N. S. Porter, Chief Clerk; R. Lane, Assistant Clerk; Wm. Wright, Sergeant-at-Arms. They are all Radicals except the Assistant Clerk. The Lower House elected on Thursday last the following officers: Henry Miles, of Lewis county, Speaker; Chas. Eugan, Chief Clerk; R. F. Assistant Clerk; P. Turpin, Sergeant-at-Arms; W. J. Yeager, Doorkeeper. P. E. Hyland was elected Chaplain of both Houses.

No business was transacted during the first week of the session, except the appointment of standing Committees, and the making of usual preliminary arrangements.—Vancouver Register.

True Merit Appreciated.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been before the public many years. Each year finds the Troches in some new, distant localities, in various parts of the world. Being an article of true merit, when once used, the value of the Troches is appreciated, and they are kept always on hand, to be used as occasion requires. For Coughs, Colds, and Throat Diseases, the Troches have proved their efficacy.

MARRIED:

On the 13th inst., at the residence of the bride's father at Oregon City, by J. C. Trullinger, Esq., J. P. James Bell, of French Prairie, and Miss Mary A. Bullock.

Consul General.—It may be of interest to some to know that Prussia contemplates sending a Consul General to New York, but of far greater importance to the citizens of Oregon is the fact that Kohn & Fishel continue to sell fine custom-made clothing at prices that defy competition, a visit to their establishment, No. 11 Front street, will satisfy all of the truth of our assertion.

Holidays.—Ellsworth & Cardwell, 59 First street (Post-office Block) are executing some beautiful pictures for the coming Holidays. As this firm have several engagements now, it would be well for those wishing sun pearls, cartes de visite, etc., to call at once and have their orders filled. Children should be brought before 12 o'clock. Negatives taken in all kinds of weather.

LUCKY MEN.—There are some men whose dishes are always bottom up when it rains porridge. They never come to grief but it turns out better than if they had done the right thing. Undertake to ride them down and they come out of every scrimmage fresh as ... and readier for the next fray than though you had let them alone. If you treat them with indifference they thrive on it. Turn them out of society and their next step is to take charge of society, lead it and ... They never trouble themselves to shape ... circumstances shape themselves for the accommodation of your lucky man. One ... by accident speaks well of him and the multitude with... or if there be a reason without knowing the reason, take up the echo and swell it into a hosanna. Without having done anything to achieve it, the lucky man finds himself some day suddenly become a great man. What city town or neighborhood is without its ... its accidental great man—its man whom everybody chooses to help along? John Morrissey is an ... He never earned fame. It came to him. The ... hardihood of brute impudence which made him a ... and elected him, was something to talk of ... and abuse. His worst enemies are every day ... his fortunes by abuse, and he will be more stared ... when he takes his seat than any other man in Washington. Major Jack Stratman, a news-dealer of San Francisco, is another one of your lucky men. Somebody ... a paper in California a few months since gave ... a puff which was copied by another paper, as a ... we suppose, of gasconading puffing and an ... puff was hitched on. FROM CANYON CITY AND VICINITY.—From a gentleman who arrived in this city last evening from Canyon City, we gather the following items: A ... the train of Closter & Co was clandestinely followed along the Canyon road for several ... by a party of Indians until the train finally camped ... near Camp Watson. In the morning the ... were all missing, and being satisfied that the Indians had them, pursuit was made by six men for about ... and till the proof was ample that the mules ... of a considerable party of Indians ... returned to Camp Watson. Colonel ... out twenty men with twenty days rations ... followed the Indians in the direction of ... Lake. They came upon the Indian camp about ... from Camp Watson on the 3d of December ... Connor in command ordered a charge which ... in gallant style and resulted in killing fourteen ... three squaws and two children and 12 ... horses. The mules of the train, except the bell ... and two which the Indians had killed on the route, ... One squaw is supposed to have got ... It is thought this is the same band which attacked the stage last fall when Wheeler was shot, as they ... of harness on their horses. During the latter ... Charles Moore who was out hunting ... For speed, neat work and ... weight, we have never seen any contrivance ... Millers and flour dealers will do well to consult Mr Warner as to rights to use.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice.

Cost of War in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries

[From the Pall Mall Gazette]

An exhaustive comparison of the cost of war now and formerly would be a most instructive and a somewhat appalling document It would be impossible to draw out such a contrast with complete accuracy, but it might be done approximately The expensiveness of war to a country comprises many items the size of armies and navies the cost of transport, the price of arms and ammunition the slaughter direct y and indirectly caused, the extent and complication of the fortifications constructed and destroyed, and the wealth and civilization which is the seat of war Some of these can be ascertained or estimated, others can only be guessed

Thus the siege and destruction of a fortress like Sebastopol is incomparably more costly to both parties than the siege of a fortress like Namur A campaign in England, or in the heart of France or Germany, as compared with a campaign carried on in Russia, in Poland, or even in Spain, would be costlier beyond all measure of comparison, both in reference to the amount of property destroyed, and the delicate and complex process of civilized and industrial life suspended or deranged. In wild and thinly peopled lands war may cost nothing but gunpowder and life, in rich and populous countries, far advanced in all the luxurious appliances of modern existence becomes actually incalculable

A few facts may, however, be noted down by which something, not of an estimate, but of an idea, may be arrived at as to the vastly increased cost of warfare now and in the days of our fathers and grandfathers One point of comparison is that the armies we fight are enormously greater than they used to be. This is owing in part to our improved facilities for the transport of troops, materials and the commissarial Railways do now, and do far more rapidly and cheaper, what bullocks and wagons did for Frederick the Great and the Duke of Wellington In the campaigns of the last century, in all the chief battles of the Seven Years' War, the Prussians never had more than 70,000 men in the field, and rarely half that number. In only two or three cases did the aggregate of the combatants on both sides reach 100,000.

Even in the early battles of Napoleon the forces engaged were what would now be considered small. Before Wagram he never had more than one hundred thousand men in the field, and seldom never as many. At Marengo he had fifty thousand. It was not till the day of his downfall approached that he began to deal with corps d'armee as numerous and collossal as those with which the wars of our days are making us familiar. At Borodino and Dresden a quarter of a million were engaged, and at Leipsic, if figures can be trusted, not far from half a million. The British force with which our great Duke won his Peninsular victories never once, I we believe—at least not more than once—reached fifty thousand, and his entire army, even reckoning Spaniards and Portuguese, seldom much exceeded that number. At the crowning victory of Waterloo the forces on both sides were under one hundred and forty thousand, and of these not one third were English. Compare these armies with the three hundred thousand who fought at Solferino, the four hundred and twenty thousand at Sadowa, and the multitudes, often exceeding a quarter of a million, with which the Americans tried the terrible issues of their civil controversy, and the advance made in recent times, if it be an advance, will be obvious at once.

It is some comfort to know that the slaughter in our days, in spite of our mightier artillery and our armes de precision, is not proportioned to the number engaged Why this should be we are not prepared to say, and we are aware that the popular impression is a different one, but we believe the facts would be found to bear us out. In Frederick's wars the proportion of killed and wounded on both sides to the forces in the field ranged from one-sixth to one-tenth, and at the peculiar battle of Zorndorf far exceeded this ratio.

In Napoleon's campaigns was still higher, often averaging a fifth; while at Ey au and Borodino it is said to have reached a third In some of these cases, perhaps, the missing may have been included, but not usually Allison's calculation is that from 1792 to 1815 three millions of French soldiers perished in the field or in the hospital, and at least an equal number out of the ranks of their antagonists The proportion of the slain and disabled in the American battles is not known with any accuracy, but probably no one would place it higher than one-tenth, while in the Italian battles of 1859 it is estimated at scarcely more than a twelfth, and at Sadowa about a fifteenth Still, though the proportion is less than it used to be, the positive number who fall is even greater, and the cost in life therefore heavier.

If we compare the cost of the arms and artillery now in use, and their suitable ammunition, with the ruder and cheaper weapons which contented us in the late war, some of the figures are very startling. The old calculation for a man-of-war, used to be roughly, £1,000 per gun; a three-decker, therefore, £100,000 or £120,000. A first rate iron-plated cannot, we believe, be completed under half a million, and some of our experimental ships are understood to have cost nearly twice that sum. A Minnie or an Enfield rifle, with its cartridge, is nearly five times as expensive as the Brown Bess. Even before conversion into a breech-loader, an Enfield (complete) costs upward of £5.

We doubt if the old musket when manufactured wholesale cost much above £1. The rifled twelve pounder now in favor for field service costs £90, and each shell it fires costs 4s. The brass nine-pounder which it superseded cost £80, and its shell 3s. But as this would be worth as old metal £50, while the iron gun would scarcely sell for anything, the true comparative figures would be £90 against £30. Lastly the sixty-eight-pounder, formerly in use for fortifications and shore batteries, cost £100, its carriage and slide another £100, and its shot 4s. The Armstrong nine inch twelve-ton gun, with which we should now arm forts, costs £1,200, and its carriage and slide £300 more, while the steel shells it fires cost, as we stated a few weeks since, £9 each The Palliser, shell, which will probably supersede these, can be made for 45s. If the more costly shell be used every shot we fire in the next war from our great embrasures will be worth a £10 note.

Exorcising the "Saints"—The Salt Lake Vedette of the 26th ult, contains a leader, which strikes with a mailed hand at the Mormon Saints. It has a word also to say favorable to the Gentiles

The Gentile residents of this city—mainly engaged in mercantile and other pursuits as they are—for uprightness, standing, character, integrity, will compare favorably with gentlemen in any community, not excepting their self righteous, dignified and classical maligners. Moreover, they are men and women as any city, whether in the East or in the West, would be glad to welcome and cherish. Go abroad through the streets of Great Salt Lake City, and as you gaze upon the splendid buildings, which are its pride, and present so great a contrast to the Salt Lake of three years ago, ask whose capital, and enterprise, and energy, has caused the change, the response will be, the Gentile merchants. Behold the enormous stock of goods in their well filled store houses; whose trains have brought them hither? Whose credit and money supply the comforts and necessaries of life at fair prices to the people of Utah? It is not disparagement to the Mormon merchants to say that the Gentiles have done their share towards all this, and toward making Salt Lake what it to-day is

Civil Rights in the South.—A correspondent of the New York Times, writing from Louisiana, says · It is safe to predict that two-thirds of the Northern planters will return to their homes as soon as they can after the crops of this season are gathered. They are led to this resolution not only by bad success in their enterprises and lack of remunerative prospects, but by actual threats of assassination if they remain. Dozens of Northerners, now planting in the interior parishes of this State, have received "notice to quit," enforced by the presentation of revolvers and the unpleasant display of rope One gentleman, formerly a Federal Colonel, and now representing Northern moneyed interest to the amount of half a million dollars, in Rapids parish, though surrounded by over a thousand discharged colored soldiers of his own and other regiments all of whom are in his employ, and have their arms with them, says that he will most assuredly abandon his business next year, as he has already been fired at several times, and has been served with verbal notification that he must leave or pay the penalty with his life The chief judicial officer of the same parish will soon make affidavit that on the docket of the term of Court now in session there are nineteen cases of murder of freedmen, and that it is useless to try to attempt to punish the criminals

Divorce Made Easy.—Mrs D, at the last term of the Common Pleas Court, obtained a divorce from her husband, and 11 days thereafter was married to a second husband During the present term of court Mrs P, the mother of the aforesaid lady, also applied for and obtained a divorce from her husband On the day following Mr. S. obtained a divorce from his wife, and three days thereafter he and the old lady, Mrs P, were married by Justice Sullivan The gentleman first tried to effect a marriage with the daughter, but, failing with her he hastened to engage himself to the mother The nuptials were only delayed by the unfortunate fact that both were married As soon as this slight disability could be removed they were united —Indianapolis Journal.

WEEKLY REVIEW

Wholesale and Jobbing Prices.

Portland Friday, 2 P M, }
Dec 14 1866

For the week under review very little has been doing except in the forwarding of accumulated supplies of flour, wheat apples etc At the present prices for flour in San Francisco the margin for profits is so small that shipment amounts to little more than the conversion of the product into its cash value [illegible] Cheap freights only save us from an actual stoppage of our domestic produce in home warehouses Without any actual drop ping of prices sales have become dull and prices are almost nominal

The Report of McCraken Merrill & Co, of the 8th inst —the latest we have from San Francisco says "Trade languishes simply because of the great scarcity of suitable tonnage to convey away to distant marts our large remaining surplus of flour and grain Stocks of breadstuffs as well as of feed grains, are large those of the latter have scarcely been broached nor do we see at present any available market open to us, although there are occasionally a few shipments of both barley and oats made to Australia and elsewhere perhaps by way of a venture.

"For wheat the active export requirement which commenced the middle of June, last continued with scarcely a moment's cessation up to the middle of November The opening price $1 60@1 65, running up gradually to $2 10@2 12½, ₩ 100 lbs then declining to less than $2 for choice samples This decline is owing entirely to the inadequate supply of available tonnage. The offerings, however, are considerable far in excess of the wants of buyers

To be added to the full stocks on hand at San Francisco the steamers Oriflamme and Montana took out full cargoes and the Pacific to sail this afternoon, will carry a heavy freight list

The San Francisco quotations for Oregon fruits are for dried 10@11c for limited quantities Oregon Pitch is quoted at $7 ₩ bbl The provision market is reported as liberally supplied with bacon sides and hams from Oregon, selling at low prices.
